

Both my husband and I volunteer on college radio broadcasting and we can relate to your problem. Competing stations are always tryihng tp push us off the air. You must hang in their and we want thepowers that be toknow that we support you efforts to preserveand protect the oldtime radio as well as the regular news and weather information.Weenjoy listening and will continue to do so. Asatisfied listener.